

Honoring outstanding advocates working to advance the rights and well-being of youth in the child welfare and juvenile justice systems.

Internationally recognized for its expertise, Juvenile Law Center has been a trailblazer in the field of children’s law. Recipients of this prize will be leading lights in the field whose inspirational careers have served as beacons for the next generation of advocates, and whose work has substantially improved the lives of America’s most vulnerable children.

The inaugural recipient, Juvenile Law Center Co-Founder Bob Schwartz, not only brought Juvenile Law Center to national and international prominence over the course of his leadership, he also helped develop the nascent field of children’s law – inspiring thousands of children’s rights advocates working nationwide today.

The winners for this year’s Leadership Prize will be chosen from a national pool of nominations by a selection committee chaired by Martha Minow, Dean of the Harvard Law School. We will celebrate the winners’ achievements at the National Constitution Center on March 20, 2017.

Each Leadership Prize recipient will receive $5,000 in recognition of their outstanding leadership, along with a Tiffany engraved award with an inscription by John Quincy Adams: If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a leader.

Please join us as a distinguished sponsor.

Your generous support is more important now than ever, as we respond to new challenges and threats to our many hard-won reforms for youth. Recognizing and honoring the trailblazers among us is critical to creating and sustaining a better world for our youth.
