

The United States is the only country in the world that sentences children to die in prison.

LIFE, DEATH, LIFE AGAIN:
CHILDREN SENTENCED TO DIE IN PRISON
a documentary play by
Elizabeth Weill-Greenberg

Life, Death, Life Again: Children Sentenced to Die in Prison shares the stories of people sentenced to die in prison for violent crimes committed as children, and a victim's grandson who chose to lead with forgiveness. Each performance will be followed by a facilitated discussion on the themes discussed in the play - radical forgiveness and how we can create a more humane criminal justice system.

LIFE, DEATH, LIFE AGAIN:
CHILDREN SENTENCED TO DIE IN PRISON

Tuesday, September 25, 2018

6:00PM Reception with light refreshments

6:30 to 8:30PM Performance & Panel Discussion

The Drake Theater - Proscenium Theatre

302 South Hicks Street

Philadelphia, PA 19102

2 PA CLE Credits for Attendance

($50 Private Attorneys / $25 Public Service & Public Interest Attorneys)

Free for Non-CLE attendees. Donations appreciated.

www.colab-arts.org

   @colabarts

To reserve your tickets, please visit www.colab-arts.org

This performance is supported by the Defender Association of Philadelphia, Juvenile Law Center, the ACLU of Pennsylvania, and Amistad Law Project and is presented by Simpatico Theatre.

Juvenile Law Center
Fighting for the rights and well-being of youth

simpatico
THEATRE