

MEET + GET HELP FROM HIGHER EDUCATION 'POINTS OF CONTACT'

WHO ARE HIGHER ED. 'POINTS OF CONTACT'?

Higher Education Points of Contact (POCs) are individuals at each college, university, and training program in Pennsylvania who are able to help students with experience in foster care.

WHAT CAN THEY HELP YOU WITH?

- Admissions and financial aid applications
- Tuition waiver applications
- Information about on-campus and community support services and resources
- General resources for students who have foster care experience.

HOW DO I FIND A POC?

Check out this list:
<https://bit.ly/POCList>

Find the POC for your school and call them! Ask them for help in applying to the school, for financial aid and for the tuition waiver.

Contact the Higher Education Points of Contact at the schools or programs you are applying to or enrolling in and ask them to help you with financial aid, applying for the tuition waiver and finding other supports.