Juvenile Law Center

50 years

50th ANNIVERSARY GALA

Founded by four Temple Law School graduates in 1975 to provide legal representation to children in Philadelphia's child welfare and justice systems, Juvenile Law Center is now one of the most influential advocates for children's rights nationwide.

For 50 years, we have worked toward a world in which all kids can thrive. Help us continue the fight!

Please join us to celebrate 50 years of leading the fight for children's rights and to honor our Chief Legal Officer and co-founder, Marsha Levick.

Marsha has dedicated her career to advancing and safeguarding the rights of youth and has been steadfast in working to change the landscape for youth justice across the country.

In our 50th year, Juvenile Law Center will undergo a leadership transition to make room for the next generation of leaders at this extraordinary organization. We commemorate our mentor and friend, Bob Schwartz, who was excited to honor Marsha as she prepares to step down as Chief Legal Officer at the end of this year after decades of leadership at the organization they founded together.
